INFORMED CONSENT FOR PHYSICAL THERAPY CARE

I, _____, hereby agree to routine physical therapy evaluation and treatment by a licensed physical therapist or under his/her supervision as ordered by my physician. I understand that the physical therapy treatment may include any one or a combination of manual treatments, modalities (modalities that use the physical and chemical properties of light, heat and electricity) and therapeutic exercises with or without equipment as deemed appropriate by my therapist. My consent to any treatment set forth is voluntary and I may withdraw any such consent at any time and to any aspect of the prescribed treatment.

Benefits to be expected:

Although no assurance can be given and every case is individual, common benefits associated with regular participation in physical therapy program include but are not limited to improvement in joint range of motion, muscle strength and flexibility, cardiovascular endurance, physical performance, body mechanics, decreased pain levels, reduction of future injury risk and prevention of various diseases. The primary goals and benefits of physical therapy are to restore and maintain normal function and movement.

Risks and Discomforts:

As with any medical procedure or treatment there are risks. These include abnormal blood pressure, fainting, disorders of heart rhythm, excessive perspiration, and in very rare instances heart attack, stroke, or death. Every effort will be made to minimize those risks by the preliminary examination/evaluation and by observations during the therapy sessions. If you have any concerns or questions about any particular portion of the proposed treatment, please notify your physical therapist and he or she will do everything in their scope to assist you.

Your Responsibility as a Patient:

To gain expected benefits you must give priority to regular attendance and adherence to prescribed amounts of intensity, duration, frequency, progression, and type of activity. To achieve the best possible results report any unusual symptoms which you experience before, during, or after a physical therapy treatment session

I have read or have had read to me the above consent. By signing below, I agree to receive routine physical therapy treatment as explained to me by the treating physical therapist. My signature also attests to the fact that I have been given Patient's Rights and Responsibilities and the Notice of Privacy Practices. I intend this consent to cover the entire course of treatment for my present condition and for any future condition for which I shall seek treatment from Chestertown Physical Therapy, Inc.
